We've spent a lot of time and money on it. If you've been browsing around here for some time, this is probably not a site you're visiting, but we're really excited about it. We hope you like it. If you've got any feedback, we'd love to hear it. Chris & Matija Re: CrossGL Surface Clock 0.4 - 30% off CrossGL.com Hi Guys, First of all - THANK YOU! - I really appreciate your comments and feedback. I've been meaning to create a new website for a while now, but have never had the time to do it. I finally decided to do it and now that it's launched, I'm having a blast creating it. I really hope you like it. Let me know if you have any other feedback or ideas, so I can keep improving it. Peace Chris Re: CrossGL Surface Clock 0.4 - 30% off CrossGL.com I created another account so I can reply to this thread. Just to inform everyone that the new website will not be supporting the Windows Key + M macro. The reason being, the designers/coders can't spend time on this kind of functionality and we just don't have the resources to do so. What's New in the?

CrossGL Surface Clock is a small utility designed to remind the time, and make indications run smooth and fast. You can display an analog clock in the tray area, and set it to show real-time data or system clock. Apart from the standard settings, you can choose the weather, add an animated background, smooth the indicators, and even snap to edges of the screen for better alignment. The application is not the most intuitive and customizable, and is intended to be a complement to, rather than an alternative to, the system clock.
